RASCAL CAUGHT.

Railway Detective Apprehends Negro Swindler.

Branchville, Nov. 22nd—Special: A clever piece of detective work was that done in Branchville recently by Southern Railway Detective A. R. Byrd, when he arrested a negro, Cohen Shuler, better known as Moss Shuler, who on last Sunday had the nerve to get on train No. 35 while here and deliberately held up another negro and taking $8 from him. This was done in the presence of some of the train crew, who were made to believe by the negro that he was a constable from Charleston, by displaying a badge with "Charleston Constable" on it, and told the negro that if he didn't cough up he would arrest him. The train crew thought the man was an officer until the affair was reported to Officer Byrd, who in a short time picked the robber up and landed him in the guard house.

Death of Mr. A. W. Tharin.

Mr. A. W. Tharin passed away on Monday night after an illness of several days. Mr. Tharin was seventy years of age and left five daughters and one son to mourn his death. He was for many years a communicant of the Episcopal church, and was a pleasant, genial gentleman, who numbered his friends by scores. He was a gallant defender of the Lost Cause, and was a member of Camp Glover U. C. V., of this city. His body was laid to rest in Sunnyside Cemetery and his spirit went to join loved ones who had preceded him to the better world.

NEGRO SHOT IN GIN HOUSE.

Particulars of the Shooting of Tom Green by E. A. Zeigler.

The Hampton correspondent of The News and Courier gives the following particulars of the shooting and killing of Tom Green, a negro by Mr. E. A. Zeigler, of this county, but who now resides at Estill in that county, where he is engaged in business. Here are the facts in the case as furnished by that correspondent:

"Tom Green, a negro man, living near the plantation of Mr. Sidney Mason, near Estill, in this county, was shot and killed last Tuesday night by Mr. E. A. Zeigler, a prominent citizen of Estill. Particulars concerning the killing are very hard to obtain, but it seems that the negro was stealing cotton from the gin house of Mr. Mason, when he was discovered by Mr. Zeigler and Mr. Mikell, who were passing the gin house in a buggy late at night. In searching the cotton room for the negro, it is alleged that Mr. Zeigler was attacked by Green, the negro, who, it is stated, had a knife in his hand. Mr. Zeigler, in defending himself from the negro's attack, shot him. The man died instantly. "An inquest was held over the dead body and the verdict of the coroner's jury was that the deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound from a gun in the hands of one E. A. Zeigler, and it seems that the jury termed the killing justifiable. Messrs. Zeigler and Mikell were on their way to the hunting ground at Charlton's pasture, where a party of hunters from Estill were camping on a hunt."

BRANCHVILLE LETTER.

Items of Personal and of Local Interest in That Town.

Branchville, Nov. 24th—Special: Thanksgiving Day has been generally observed by most of the business men as well as those who are not in business. Some of the merchants closed their stores for the day and went bird hunting and some amused themselves in other ways. It is reported that Mr. W. P. Appleby who was shot while out hunting last week is getting on nicely and is expected to be able to come home by the first of next week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. B. Fairley and family who moved to Georgia two years ago, have decided to move back to South Carolina and live on the Whetzell place just out of the City of Orangeburg.

Among those who attended the Ben Hur performances in Columbia last Tuesday night were Mrs. J. B. Henderson, Miss Belle Dukes, Mrs. L. H. Fairley, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wimberly, Mrs. C. W. Patrick, Mrs. J. N. Byrd, Dr. J. S. Wimberly, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. S. Fairley, Mr. E. E. Rawl and Mr. Howell.

Messrs. P. P. Betha and J. S. Britton spent Sunday in Charleston, where they went to visit Mr. W. P. Appleby, who is in the Infirmary there.

Mr. G. W. Reeves spent Wednesday in Orangeburg on business. Miss Violine Outz, of Greenwood, has accepted a position as one of the teachers in the Graded School here in the place of Miss Witherspoon who resigned recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jones spent last Wednesday in Orangeburg, where Mr. Jones went on professional business.

Rink Franklin Case.

Unless the supreme court directs otherwise Pink Franklin, the Orangeburg county murderer, will have to pay the death penalty at some future date to be set by a circuit judge. The case has been in the courts of the State until it is almost history. During the latter part of this month, attorneys for the negro will make argument before the supreme court for a new trial on the ground of after-discovered evidence. A circuit judge refused a new trial and an appeal was taken. The case has been before the supreme court on a previous occasion and the verdict of guilty of murder was affirmed.

Death of Mrs. F. E. Hall.

Mrs. Fannie E. Hall died at the home of her son, Shellie B. Hall, in this city, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Hall was about 53 years of age and has been in failing health for some time. The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at Ebenezer Baptist church in the "Fork" section of this county, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Hall was a life-long member of this church. The deceased is survived by one son, S. B. Hall; three daughters, Mrs. L. C. Woods of Atlanta, and Misses Ella and Edna Hall of Savannah, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Cannon of this city. She was a sister of the late R. Frank Way, of this county.

Been Assigned to Work.

Rev. F. W. Dibble, of this city, who has joined the Western North Carolina Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, has been assigned to the Spring Creek Circuit in the Waynesville District, where he will labor for the next conference year. His many relatives and friends in this city will watch his career with interest. They feel assured that he will acquire himself handsomely in the high and noble work to which he has been called.

A Sad Death.

On last Saturday afternoon the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. O'Clain and bore their infant daughter away to her home in Heaven. The death of this sweet little baby is a great affliction to her fond parents, but they have the sweet consolation of knowing that their dear little darling is safe in the arms of Jesus.

NEW ROAD IS OPEN.

The Bates Ferry Crossing is Now Ready For Travel.

The Columbia Record says the ferry over the Congaree river, at Buckhead Island, connecting Richland and Calhoun counties, and opening a direct road from Columbia to Orangeburg and Charleston, is now in operation and is being generally used.

From the Bates plantation on the Richland side a series of substantial bridges have been constructed over the "Dead River" to Buckhead Island, and along this island for a mile or more there is a splendid road to the present channel of the Congaree, where the ferry is established. The flat boat which was in use for about two years on the Wateree, near Camden, pending the erection of the bridge at that point, was purchased some time ago and poled to the Bates ferry, where it is now in use.

On the Calhoun side an admirable road has been constructed through the swamp, with several good bridges over the wet weather streams, and from the swamp to the town of Fort Motte the road has been put in excellent condition. On Sunday afternoon Mr. Bates, in an Oakland, took down to the ferry a party, consisting of himself, Mr. J. P. Matthews, Mr. John W. Conder, Mr. Ira W. Williams and a representative of The Record, and the trip from Columbia to Fort Motte, a distance of 33 miles, was made in two hours, including the crossing of the river on the ferry.

For the present the ferry is being operated as a private enterprise, with a nominal toll charged to pay for the expense of tending the boat, but it is the desire of the promoters that it be taken over by Calhoun and Richland counties. Already the new route is being much used by all sorts of vehicles and its importance will shortly be thoroughly demonstrated. The opening of this ferry gives people the choice of two routes to Columbia from this city. The Hugaboo Swamp route seems to be all right, and is now generally used. Most people will still prefer it because of the crossing at the ferry.

"THE GIRL IN THE TAXI."

Play Which Created Sensation Here on December 5th.

"The Girl in the Taxi," the laughing success of the present era is announced to appear at the Academy of Music for one night's engagement on December 5th. This is the play which created such a sensation in Paris and upon its production in this country scored the greatest success and achieved the longest run of any play of similar nature in Chicago and Boston. Mirth and merriment hold the reins and drive with reckless pace over hills and dales of side-splitting complications from curtain to curtain. Singing, dancing and musical specialties, interpolated throughout the piece make of it the most delightful and diverting entertainment ever presented in this city. Not to have seen "The Girl in the Taxi" is to have missed the biggest laugh-producer of the season.

Notes from Julia Academy.

Well, Mr. Editor, you have not heard from Julia Academy in quite a while, but I assure you we haven't been asleep; though we made a narrow escape of being burned last Wednesday.

Just a few minutes before the fire was discovered Mr. M. J. West, who is always found in the line of duty, arrived with the excellent piano, which had been purchased by the Improvement Association. As soon as the alarm was given, these kind friends came to our rescue. Messrs. Gettie and Eldridge Sharp, Carlton Dougherty, Alex McClure and Son Livingston, colored, for whom the community is very grateful. The damage was slight, owing to their faithful work.

We also wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sharp for lending us a room in their comfortable home to teach in, by which the school has lost no time.

The local Improvement Association has been kind enough to meet with us during the summer which gave us access to the new books in the library which we certainly enjoyed. This kept the pupils in fine trim for beginning school, causing each one to enter the grade that they had been assigned to the previous year.

The school is under the efficient management of Miss Martha McClue of York County. Kind friends you can come to Julia Academy again on the eve of 9th of December. You who have been there before know that means a "good time."

Married at Branchville.

Mr. R. M. Bruce, of Bamberg, and Miss Belle Berry, of Branchville, were happily married at the home of Honron Berry, brother-in-law of the groom, by the Rev. Allan E. MacFarlane, on Sunday evening. Mr. Bruce has a position with the Bamberg Herald, and is a promising young man, while his bride was one of Branchville's handsome young ladies, the daughter of Mr. Jim E. Berry. The couple left on the late train for a bridal tour. After spending some time in the West, they will return to Bamberg, where they will make their future home.

Marriage Near Springfield.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 20th, at four o'clock a number of the friends of Miss Mattie Johnson and Mr. H. W. Porter, gathered at the home of the Rev. J. H. Sanford to see them happily married. Miss Johnson has been making her home with the Rev. Sanford for quite awhile and Mr. Porter's home is near by.

MEN OLD AT THIRTY-FIVE.

One Million Baldheads Who Thought Dandruff Wasn't Dangerous.

In the United States and Canada today there are nearly a million men who at 35 can be put in the baldhead class.

When these men had thick vigorous hair, dandruff made its appearance.

That was the time to attack the enemy of mankind—the persistent little devil called a dandruff microbe, or germ that burrows deep down into the hair root and saps it of the vitality that is so essential to the hair.

Young men or any man, for that matter, beware of the dandruff germ; it is not a theory, but an actual condition that confronts you. That dandruff is caused by a germ, is proven beyond question. That this germ destroys the hair root is today a matter of common knowledge.

J. G. Wannamaker Mfg. Co., druggists, has the remedy that kills the dandruff germs. They guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It is called Parisian Sage, and can be obtained at druggists in every town in America—ask J. G. Wannamaker for it. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle of Parisian Sage.

Important Event in Orangeburg.

Young ladies, young men, business men and ladies, and all who possibly can attend, are invited and requested to attend the big land sale, barbecue, fish fry and distribution of gold and silver by the Enterprise Land Co., at Orangeburg, S. C., on Saturday, December 3rd, 1910. This sale is a very important event for Orangeburg, and the people of the city, country, other towns and all friends of Orangeburg, should be sure to attend, and give their influence and support to the sale, and make it such a complete success that it will be a creditable advertisement and a great and permanent benefit to Orangeburg, so that the interests of every individual, every business in the entire city in general will be greatly benefited.

Come and combine pleasure with business. These properties will certainly prove to be money makers for all who buy at this sale, at first cost and on very easy terms. You cannot do better than put some money in them, for they will quickly increase in value. Country people, salaried women, wage earners and everybody who can possibly make the small cash payment should buy, and the long and easy time to pay the balance will enable you to save up your money and meet your payments without inconvenience, and thus quickly double your money instead of wasting it. A good plan would be to buy as many lots as you can and sell half of them for what all cost and have the other half left free of cost.

Those who buy lots and want to build houses for homes or rent will be able to do so. Go and examine the properties, select your lots and buy them at the sales. The Enterprise Land Company will sell 100 near the business center of Orangeburg, Saturday, December 3, commencing at noon, and all who attend may partake of a big barbecue, fish fry, and share in the distribution of a bag of money.
